

Bunbun Gift Certificate can be used from July 1 to September 30, 2026.

The Kokubunji City Government will be providing a gift certificate in the form of a card (see image below) to each resident of Kokubunji City to the value of 6000 yen, which (like cash) can then be used to purchase goods at participating stores in Kokubunji City.

The card is to be mailed to the head of each household in June and delivered by Japan Post in an envelope as depicted in the below image.

Period of validity

- From 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, July 1 to Wednesday, September 30, 2026.

How to Use Bunbun Gift Certificates

STEP 1: Take your Bunbun Gift Certificate and go to a participating store.

STEP 2: Show your Bunbun Gift Certificate at the store.

STEP 3: Check the amount used on the store's device.

Note: If the certificate value is insufficient, please pay the remaining balance in cash or by other accepted methods.

Further information.

For details regarding participating stores and other information, please check the website below or contact the Bunbun Call Center.

Website

- <https://kokubunji2026.com/> (Japanese only)

Call Center Contact

- Bunbun Gift Certificate User Call Center (Japanese only): 0120-04-7722
- Opening Hours: 9:00 a.m.– 5:00 p.m.

Note: The Call Center will be closed on Saturdays, Sundays, and Public Holidays during June, August, and September.

Stamp Rally Event

When you go to a store where you can use the Bunbun Gift Certificate, you can collect stamps using the LINE app. By using the LINE app, you can win a prize depending on the number of stamps you collect. An application is required to participate in this event. For details on how to apply and other information, please check the website below.

<https://www.city.kokubunji.tokyo.jp/business/keizai/1035537/1037698.html>

(Japanese only)

Call Center Contact (For further information or assistance)

Kokubunji City, Economic Affairs Division Phone: 042-312-8613